

J. BULL BRISTLING WITH RAGE

Resents Slaying of Briton in Mexico.

WASHINGTON VIEWS SITUATION GRAVELY

England Asks Powers to Take Concerted Action Against the Republic.

El Paso, Feb. 21.—A brush between Corporal Jensen of Troop M, Thirtieth cavalry, and a score or more Mexicans, during which the Mexicans returned Jensen's fire, occurred.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Viewing the execution of William S. Benton, a British subject, by General Villa as a parallel to the blowing up of the Maine, England already is communicating with the powers, asking them to take concerted action against Mexico.

While news of this action on the part of Great Britain comes from private cables official Washington is disturbed gravely by news of the execution. The killing of a British subject under circumstances such as dispatches from the border portray caused a stir in diplomatic circles. Those familiar with the aggressive attitude Great Britain assumes in pressing demands for reparation when her subjects have been wronged freely predict startling developments.

Administration officials are concerned greatly. President Wilson discussed the occurrence briefly with the cabinet and ordered the state department to make a thorough investigation. Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, and Secretary Bryan held a long conference. There is every evidence that the British ambassador and the state department were advised too late of Benton's impending fate to intercede for him.

American Warning Unheeded.

It is the first time since the present revolution began a year ago that the general warning from the United States government to Mexican factions to protect all foreigners went unheeded.

"I haven't sufficient facts on which to base an opinion," Secretary Bryan said. "Until I have the department will express no opinion."

This was the official view of the situation, with messages passing back and forth between the state department and Consul Edwards and his temporary assistant, G. C. Carrothers, consular representative at Torreon.

Discussion of the case between the ambassador and the secretary of state developed clearly the absence of any responsibility on the part of the United States for the killing of the British subject, even though investigation should prove it to have been unjustifiable.

The United States, it was asserted, simply acted as a friend and exerted every effort to save the man's life and the fact that through its consular officers the American government virtually may have recognized the de facto control of Villa over a certain portion of Northern Mexico it was held in no wise increased its liability for the actions of that individual.

Intervention May Result.

Fear has been revived at Mexico City, according to word from there, that the Benton execution may result in the United States being forced by Great Britain to take some action that easily might become intervention.

Although since revolutionary conditions assumed serious proportions three years ago there have been killed in various parts of the country some 150 Americans, including participants on both sides of the revolution, there are on record the deaths of only four Britishers, including Benton. The three others were killed in districts where the chiefs of neither faction had any direct authority and Benton's is the first case where it appears that culpability may be placed definitely.

Would Aid Ambitious Youths.

Washington, Feb. 21.—To encourage young men to enlist in the navy, and being one in the navy to study hard to advance themselves, Secretary Daniels has proposed a bill authorizing him to appoint annually 250 young enlisted men to the naval academy as midshipmen.

OPPOSITION TO TREATIES FADES

Senate Defeats Amendments to Pending Agreements.

ASSURES THEIR RATIFICATION

Senators Chamberlain and O'Gorman, who conducted the fight against the pact on the Democratic side, concede defeat and the champions of arbitration express gratification over the result.

Washington, Feb. 21.—By defeating amendments to general arbitration treaties pending renewal with Great Britain, Japan and six other nations the senate took the first decisive step in the policy of the administration to lift the United States from what officials have characterized as its "isolated position" in foreign relations.

The test of strength in the treaty controversy came on an amendment to the Spanish treaty urged by Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, which would withhold from arbitration such important international issues as immigration, the question of admitting aliens to domestic schools, affairs involving the Monroe doctrine and the provisions of the Panama canal act exempting coastwise shipping from tolls. This amendment was rejected by a vote of 13 to 40, more than two-thirds majority.

This result was regarded by administration leaders as marking the end of the controversy over the government's foreign policy and assuring the ratification of the treaties which expired more than a year ago with Great Britain, Japan, Italy, Spain, Norway, Portugal and Switzerland.

That the big fight is over was conceded even by leaders of the opposition, among them Senators Chamberlain and O'Gorman, who conducted the attack upon the treaties from within the Democratic breastworks.

Champions of arbitration as an international principle and leaders in the Democratic ranks expressed gratification at the result.

President Wilson let it be known that he is for repeal of the tolls provision, that there can be no compromise in the situation, in order that it may be signaled to the world that the United States will stand firmly by its international obligations.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE SPEECH

California Congressman Ridicules President and Democrats.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Representative Knowland, Republican, of California made a woman suffrage speech in the house bristling with satirical references to President Wilson and the Democratic party. He warned the Democrats that they might as well capitulate now, as equal suffrage is inevitable.

Declaring that the success of the suffragist movement in California and other Western states justified action by congress he attacked the Democratic party for refusing recognition to the movement. He said he understands the majority leaders have "condemned" to grant a hearing before the house judiciary committee, but added "as the party has gone on record in caucus by a two-thirds vote, the hearing will, I fear, be without result."

RAILROAD FINED $402,000

Also Restrained From Doing Intra-state Business in Mississippi.

Gulfport, Miss., Feb. 21.—The Louisville and Nashville railroad was fined $402,000 and enjoined from doing intra-state business in Mississippi by a decision in chancery court here, based on the charge that the railroad company had failed to obey an order of the Mississippi railroad commission that Louisville and Nashville trains should stop at Bay St. Louis.

The company gave a supersedeas bond for double the amount of bond pending appeal.

ARGUMENTS IN THAW CASE

Attorneys Ask for a Writ of Habeas Corpus.

Concord, N. H., Feb. 21.—Reasons for granting the petition of Harry Kendall Thaw for a writ of habeas corpus to prevent his extradition to New York state as a fugitive from justice were presented to Federal Judge Edgar Aldrich. Arguments against the petition will be given by William T. Jerome, representing New York.

Regarding the other question involved in the hearing—that of admitting Thaw to bail—Judge Aldrich, without making a formal ruling, intimated that he might leave it to the federal supreme court for decision.

TWO MORE BRITONS MISSING

Fears Are Expressed They Have Been Shot at Juarez.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 21.—Two more English are reported as having "disappeared" in Juarez. The report came from Samuel Stewart, who says the men, John Lawrence and a companion named Curtis, went to Juarez Wednesday to search for William S. Benton. Stewart expressed the fear that they, like Benton, had been shot. Stewart was permitted to search the jails and guardhouses of Juarez, but found no trace of them.

AMERICANS BRAND VILLA MURDERER

Storm of Indignation Breaks Out at El Paso, Tex.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 21.—A storm of indignation broke along the border when it became known that William S. Benton, a British subject and a wealthy land owner in Mexico, had been executed by rebels in Juarez after he had made a protest to General Francisco Villa about alleged depredations of the Constitutionalists.

A mass meeting was held and resolutions adopted censuring the state department at Washington for its alleged suppression of the consular report of the Benton case and calling on congress to demand from the state department a full record of alleged crimes and outrages against foreigners in Mexico. The resolutions call Villa a murderer.

The meeting came as the climax of a day of excitement caused by news of the death of Benton.

Former Governor George Curry of New Mexico was the principal speaker. He was named a committee of one at an impromptu indignation meeting in the lobby of the hotel which is headquarters of the foreigners driven out of Mexico to investigate the killing of Benton, but his inquiries developed nothing not previously published.

UNKNOWN STEAMER ASHORE

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 21.—An unknown steamer was reported ashore one mile north of Little Island Lifesaving station. There is a severe northeaster sweeping the coast and the seas are unusually high.

Grave fears were felt for the safety of the five-masted schooner Kinso and her crew of eleven, supposed to be somewhere off the Atlantic coast battling with a raging gale in a blinding snow storm.

G. O. P. WORRIED BY PROGRESSIVES

New Party Men Reluctant to Unite With Republicans.

HOPE IS STILL HELD OUT.

Bryan Holds That Roger Sullivan of Illinois Should Not Go to Senate, Although He Swung Fifty-eight Votes to Wilson at Baltimore Convention. Goulden Heard Lincoln at Gettysburg.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Feb. 21.—[Special.]—Activity of the Progressives in various states and congressional districts has had a somewhat disquieting effect upon Republicans. The hope that the Progressives would return in large numbers to the Republican party is still maintained, but not with the same confidence that was expressed when the Democrats were passing their important legislation in the house.

At that time the Republicans were pointing out that the Democratic legislation would prove ineffective and bring about hard times, after which the Progressives would flock back to the old party. However, it should be remembered in connection with the Democratic legislation, both the tariff bill and the currency bill, that Republicans of progressive tendencies and nearly all of the real Progressives in the house voted for these bills.

"Strange Bedfellows." A little "kickup" which has occurred between Secretary of State Bryan and Roger Sullivan of Illinois, in which Mr. Bryan maintains that Sullivan should not come to the senate, carries some of us back to the Baltimore convention. Sullivan was there with fifty-eight votes from Illinois which were instructed for and on many ballots voted for Champ Clark. Mr. Bryan was there in the Nebraska delegation instructed for Champ Clark. At a certain stage in the convention Mr. Bryan changed from Clark to Wilson. A little later Roger Sullivan swung the entire Illinois delegation to Woodrow Wilson. The "strange bedfellows" of that convention are not to occupy the same political bed in the future, according to recent declarations made by Mr. Bryan.

Goulden Heard Lincoln.

Congressman Goulden of New York surprised everybody in the house by announcing that he was the only man on the floor who heard Lincoln's famous speech at Gettysburg. He went on to say that he stood within thirty feet of the great president when that wonderful address was delivered. Goulden is probably the only man in either house that can claim such distinction.

Woman's Work.

The day the house passed the bill limiting to eight hours a day's work for women Congressman Mann of Illinois, speaking for the bill, said that "the legislator ought to be a philosopher, a student of history and of the times." Then he went on: "Of course women always work longer hours than men when they keep house and raise children at home. I am sure my good mother worked sixteen hours a day raising nine sons, taking care of a household of boys and other people."

Must Be Built Up.

Leader Underwood was heckled by different members of his party who are "strict constructionists" when he supported the Alaska railroad bill. In reply to a question as to whether he would favor government aid in building roads on the continent of the United States Mr. Underwood said:

"I should if it was within the power of the constitution and it was necessary to build up and develop our country. Any party which assumes the responsibility of government must live up to that responsibility."

As Defined by Burgess.

Congressman Burgess, like a great many other Texans, does not subscribe to all the progressive policies of the administration. In a recent speech in the house he gave some definitions, saying, "A progressive means a man who is for anything that anybody wants, and a reactionary is a man who is against anything that anybody wants."

Looking Out For Montana.

No one can blame a man for looking after his own, and so it is not at all surprising that Senator Myers of Montana gives particular attention to everything pertaining to that state. As chairman of the committee on public lands he is in a position to do a great deal for Montana, and the legislation which he has reported shows that he intends to do it.

Cause of Merriment.

When any member of the house desires to raise a laugh he turns back the pages of time—and the Congressional Record—to debates in congress over the acquisition of Louisiana, California and Oregon or any of that vast territory which has been carved up into states. He reads expressions of men prominent in those days declaring the uselessness of any or all of that vast region. Every time any bill is pending for irrigation, for the development of the west or for Alaska the ideas of those men of old times are brought out, and they never fail to excite the risibilities of members of congress.

Japan's Rice.

Japan is such a mountainous country that it uses intensive cultivation in order to raise enough rice.

Gore, in which a verdict for the defendant was returned here Wednesday, was filed in behalf of Mrs. Bond. Date for a hearing has not been set. In her suit Mrs. Bond charged that the senator attacked her in a Washington hotel last March.

Alleged misconduct of the jury, misdirection of the court and the refusal of Judge George W. Clark to permit questions concerning the life of Senator Gore are among the eleven grounds set up in the motion.

The mining companies attempted to establish on cross-examination that the guards maintained over the strikebreakers were to afford protection.

Both probably will die.

Masked Bandit Shoots Passengers Who Resist.

CHANCES OF CAPTURE REMOTE

Trio of Masked Robbers Enter Day Coach of Great Northern Train and Prepare to Hold Up Passengers. Three Men Tackle One Bandit and in the Scuffle Are Shot to Death.

Bellingham, Wash., Feb. 21.—Three passengers on Great Northern train No. 358, bound for Vancouver, were shot down when they attempted to resist one of a trio of holdup men armed with an automatic pistol.

The band of masked men entered the train while it was running along the edge of the bay, nine miles south of here.

The dead are: Thomas P. Wadsworth, Vancouver, Canadian Pacific conductor; R. L. Lee, Bremerton, clerk in the navy yard; H. R. Aderson, Vancouver, traveling salesman.

It is believed the three bandits boarded the train at Burlington, a few miles south of the place of the hold-up. They were seen to leave the smoking car and enter the vestibule between it and the day coach, where they tied white handkerchiefs about their faces.

One of the men then entered the day coach and walked to the rear door, a second one stepped just inside the coach, while the third remained in the vestibule.

As the man reached the rear door and started to lock it the three men who were killed leaped from their seats and started grappling with him.

Robber Shoots Out Lights.

At that minute the robber, who was at the forward end of the coach, began shooting into the ceiling of the car and put out the lights.

The robber, grappling with the three men, began shooting and fired probably ten shots. Lee was the first man to fall. The next two shots killed Wadsworth and McElhoo. Lee was trying to crawl behind the rear seat when the bandit turned his gun on him and fired five or six shots into his back. None of the shots fired by the other bandit took effect, but he terrorized the passengers, a half dozen women fainting.

The slayer turned and started back to the front of the coach. As he passed along several women passengers held their purses in the aisles. He gathered up a handful of them and then ran.

The three bandits left the train together as it came to a stop from a signal given by the conductor, who had heard the shooting from another coach and pulled the bell cord.

Poses were hurriedly formed here and a special train was hurried to the scene, but on account of the wilderness of the surrounding country and the opportunity to get away in a boat to San Juan Islands little hope is held out for the speedy capture of the robbers.

ARE SENTENCED TO PRISON

Former St. Paul Police Officers Guilty of Accepting Bribes.

St. Paul, Feb. 21.—Martin J. Flanagan, former acting chief of police of St. Paul, and Frederick Turner, former city detective, were given indeterminate sentences of not more than ten years in the state penitentiary at Stillwater by Judge P. W. Morrison in the Ramsey county district court.

Both men were found guilty by a jury of accepting a bribe of $3,000 from Ida Dorsey, a former Minneapolis resort keeper. Bonds were fixed by the court at $10,000 in each case and stay of execution for the purpose of appeal was granted until April 4.

Appeal is to be made on the ground that John Buschman, one of the jurors, as it was found after the trial was begun, is a convicted felon serving a suspended sentence for grand larceny, and was not qualified to serve on the jury.

Secretary Wm. Nelson, of the Grand and Puissant Order of the Orientals, has announced positively and unequivocally that all applications must be turned into his office promptly before the big ceremonies on Saturday evening, February 28. Secretary Nelson wants to be assured that the entrants to the class initiation will not exceed 85, for that is the limit which the initiation committee can safely handle. The applications are flowing into the secretary's hands in a steady stream and it has been found necessary to get a wheelbarrow to haul the initiation money to the treasurer.

On Monday, February 16, George Rose received a most delightful surprise on the occasion of his birthday, the party being held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, 605 Maple street, Northeast, where Mr. Rose is making his home. There were thirty-six of his most intimate friends present. Preceding the surprise was a short yet successful prayer meeting conducted by Captain Laverick and Cadet Strom of the Salvation Army. Then Miss Jennie Patterson gave one of her favorite solos. Next was the presentation of a splendid Bible and several other useful presents by Rev. Barkey. He then gave a short talk on what the future held in store by following the word of the holy book which had been presented. Mr. Rose gave a brief speech wherein he thanked his many friends for their loving kindness toward him. Last but not least, was the bountiful supper served. The many friends departed for their different homes, each feeling that they had received a blessing by being there and wishing Mr. Rose many more happy birthdays.

Tomorrow afternoon and evening the Columbia announces the coming of the "Resurrection." Its not a religious play but a romance.

MORE LIGHT IN WEST BRAINERD

Booster Club Goes on Record as Favoring Street and Bridge Lights for That Section

A DUTY OWED TO HOSPITAL
New Electric Sign Committee is Geo. H. Gardner, P. T. Brown and Judge J. T. Sanborn

West Brainerd is entitled to street and bridge lighting, was the gist of a motion carried by the Booster club at Friday night's meeting. The club favored the petition recently presented to the city council, signed by 40 petitioners from West Brainerd and asking for street lights in this neglected part of Brainerd.

George H. Gardner said the better lighting of West Brainerd was a duty the city owed these West Brainerd people and the Northern Pacific railway sanatorium. That section of the city was growing up, more houses were built and the people were entitled to consideration at the hands of the city and to having such benefits as the rest of Brainerd was receiving.

Elmer House said many West Brainerd people feared to come to town on dark nights, women and children especially. Theirs was a section of the city which often wished to trade in Brainerd evenings or to attend amusements, but dark streets and alleys were a drawback.

P. T. Brown said more light meant safer streets and would be a deterrent to crime such as might foster in dark places. More light really was as efficient as police protection for West Brainerd.

Others called attention to the strangers who made their homes in the city and who dreaded calling at the hospital in the evening, the trip having to be made over unlighted streets.

Others suggested that the street lighting, if installed, would cause a demand for electricity in the homes of West Brainerd people.

The club unanimously endorsed the proposition for more light in West Brainerd and pledged itself to work for the improvement.

P. T. Brown made a minority report on the electric sign which is to advertise Brainerd near the depot and the report was accepted and the committee discharged.

Wm. Nelson stated that a one-face sign would cost $600. A two-face sign equipped with a flasher would cost more and would be of still greater benefit to the city as it would be seen from all sides.

A motion carried to have the chair appointed a committee of three to commence solicity subscriptions for the sign. President Mahlum appointed George H. Gardner, P. T. Brown and Judge J. T. Sanborn.

Wm. Nelson made a report on the Booster bulletin which had been proposed and said the cost of production at the present time was prohibitive. The report was accepted and the committee discharged.

President Mahlum referred to the

A communication was read from Secretary P. T. Brown, of the Associated Charities on the need of funds to carry on the work. On motion the club ordered a donation made to the Associated Charities.

The new members accepted were O. N. Ollstead, who is employed on drill work near Brainerd; J. T. Stillwell and Frank Bidwell, the latter being two of the youngest members of the Booster club.

P. B. Nettleton spoke of the improvements needed at the proposed city hall and President Mahlum distributed blanks on which members were free to express innovations desired and which the council can consider and call to the attention of the architect.

P. B. Nettleton recommended an assembly hall for the discussion of public questions; a farmers' room, women's room, an employment bureau and a young mens' room equipped with shower baths and gymnasium.

George H. Gardner suggested some sort of balcony arrangement in front over the entrance to the city hall for the purpose of outdoor speaking.

P. T. Brown wished to have offices in the city hall for the Associated Charities and a store room for their supplies.

It was suggested that a card be printed in the Dispatch for receiving further suggestions. Readers of the paper are requested to avail themselves of this opportunity.

SUPREME COURT AFFIRMS ORDER

Dismissal of Case, Johnson vs N. P. Ry. Co. by Judge W. S. McClenahan, District Court

SUSTAINED IN HIGHER COURT

Andrew H. Johnson Died From Injuries Received at Como Shops in S. Paul

The opinion of the supreme court in the case of Jennie Johnson, as administratrix of the estate of Andrew H. Johnson, deceased, against the Northern Pacific Railway company, was handed down yesterday. This case was tried in the district court here last June, and at the close of plaintiff's testimony, Judge McClenahan dismissed it on a point of law. The plaintiff appealed to the supreme court, and the supreme court sustained the ruling of Judge McClenahan.

Johnson was injured at the Como shops, St. Paul, by falling from an unenclosed elevator, and his widow sought to recover damages for his death. The supreme court held that Mr. Johnson, having been aware, at the time he used the elevator, of its condition, assumed the risks incident to its use and therefore could not recover.

The syllabus of the supreme court is as follows:

Crow Wing County. Jennie Johnson, as administratrix, appellant, vs Northern Pacific Railway company, a corporation, et al, respondents—

1. Neither Section 1813, Revised Laws 1905, which provided for the guarding of dangerous machinery and dangerous places in factories, nor Section 1815, Revised Laws 1905, which provided for the guarding of elevator walls, imposed any duty to enclose the car of a freight elevator.

2. Deceased undertook to use a freight elevator which was unenclosed on two sides. He was an experienced man and had frequently used this elevator. He was not required to use it on this occasion, but was using it for his own private purpose. He was injured in some manner falling over the side of the car. Held, he assumed the risk incident to the use of the elevator in the condition in which he found it.

3. The rule that, the doctrine of assumption of risk does not apply where an employee is by some mishap thrown against some unguarded appliance, has no application to the case where the employee was operating the very appliance which was the source of danger and received an injury from the source of danger to which he knew he was exposed.

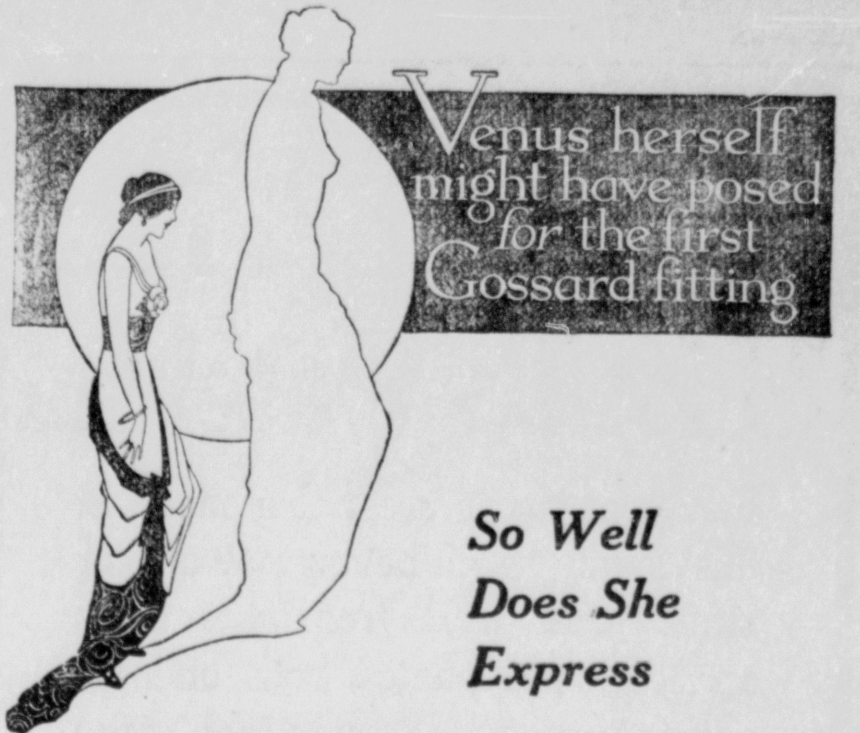

Order affirmed.

HOUSEKEEPERS Must be Watchful

For great efforts are being made in this vicinity to sell baking powders of inferior class, made from alum acids and lime phosphates, both undesirable to those who require high-grade cream of tartar baking powder to make clean and healthful food.

The official Government tests have shown Royal Baking Powder to be a pure, healthful, grape cream of tartar baking powder, of highest strength, and care should be taken to prevent the substitution of any other brand in its place.

Royal Baking Powder costs only a fair price per pound, and is cheaper and better at its price than any other baking powder in the world.

A Startling Debut.

A comedy of errors describes the first appearance on the stage of Huntley Wright. He was supposed to impersonate the warder of a madhouse, and the scene opened with the brutal ill treatment of the hero, and it ended with a gunpowder explosion. In his nervousness the warder dropped his cap, and, being agitated and short-sighted, he picked up the pan of gunpowder instead. It instantly blew up, nearly frightening him out of his wits. He rushed from the stage and collapsed, as he thought, on a stool in the wings, which turned out to be a fire bucket full of water!—London Answers.

Brainerd Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Brainerd citizen:

Mrs. T. F. Mooney, 211 Gillies St., N. E., Brainerd, Minn., says: "I have known about Doan's Kidney Pills for some time. I procured this remedy at H. P. Dunn's drug store, and it certainly was of great benefit to me."

Mrs. Mooney is only one of many Brainerd people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Mooney had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. Success depends largely upon Good Health

In your race for success don't lose sight of the fact that only through good health can you attain success. The tension you must necessarily place upon your nerves, and the sacrifice of proper exercise you have to make at times must be balanced in some way.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

is the balancing power—a vitalizing power. It acts on the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition, thus purifying the blood and giving strength to the nerves, indirectly aiding the liver to perform its very important work. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been successful for a generation as a tonic and body builder. Sold by medicine dealers in liquid or tablet form—trial box of "Tablets" mailed on receipt of 50 one-cent stamps.

If in failing health write Dr. R. V. Pierce's faculty at Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, New York.

DR. PIERCE'S GREAT FAMILY DOCTOR BOOK. The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser—newly revised up-to-date edition—of 1008 pages, answers hosts of delicate questions which every woman, single or married, ought to know. THE DISPATCH WANT ADS PAY to say that if you save the premium on fire insurance for a certain number of years you would have the value of the policy. So you would if you lived long enough and had a fire in the meantime. But suppose you have a fire tonight, tomorrow or next month. Have us insure you first and do your fancy figuring afterwards.
